Hungarotickets fulfills children's dreams:

SOS Children's Villages invited to the Hungarian F1 Grand Prix

SOS Children's village – Since 60 years the visionary idea of the Austrian Hermann Gmeiner is reality and celebrates an anniversary this year.

In the meantime, SOS Children's Villages gave thousands of children, teenagers and families a new start in their lives, hope, real comfort and more joy. Since 1986 in Hungary, which is also the first year the Hungarian F1 Grand Prix took place.

For 40 children from the Children's Villages Sé (near Szombathely) and Lajosmizse (south of Budapest) this year a dream comes true at the Formula 1 Grand Prix of Hungary (23.-26.07.2009):

At the invitation of Hungarotickets, an official ticket agency for the Hungarian Formula 1 Grand Prix, the children are picked up from their families, can enjoy a whole day at the circuit following the racing action of 5 different series from best places in the Gold area. With a little luck they will get a personal autograph from one of the F1 Stars at the planned meet & greet. This day impressive day will not be easily forgotten by the children, as they will receive a original Hungarotickets fan package as a souvenir before they return home.

Gerwin Beran, managing partner of Hungarotickets: "Children's dreams are there to become true. I have three children myself so I know what I am talking about."

Hungarotickets is official ticket agency of the Hungarian Formula 1 Grand Prix and the famous Sziget Festival. In addition, tickets for the Red Bull Air Race in Budapest and the FIA GT Championship at Hungaroring.
